INTETHIQ is an organization specializing in transformative change and development. We focus on developing inclusive organizational cultures that improve employee engagement, maximize individual potential, enhance leadership skills at all levels, and support digital advancements while encouraging innovation.

We invite you and your organization to the Women in Thought (WIT) Summit on March 13th, from 10 AM to 3 PM, The Conference Center at OCLC in Dublin, Ohio.

This dynamic summit will explore the state of women in Ohio, examine generational differences, foster cross-generational connections, and highlight the incredible contributions of women in leadership, mentorship, health, legal, education, nonprofit sectors, and beyond. It is an excellent opportunity for networking, professional development, and celebrating Women's History Month!

The day will begin with groundbreaking research created by The Women's Fund of Central Ohio, followed by a panel of leaders from, healthcare, legal, education, non-profit, corporate and government to discuss this research and how we move from data to action.

During lunch, attendees will work in generational teams to identify three areas of future contribution, to themselves, the community, and one another. The agenda continues with a workshop to improve our cognitive thinking skills. Our fireside chat, Mentorship at the Margins: Uplifting Women and Families Across Generations features two millennial leaders thriving at work. The summit will conclude with an inspirational keynote designed to motivate us toward future growth.
